The Red River, or sometimes the Red River of the South, is a major river in the southern United States of America. It was named for the red-bed country of its watershed. It is one of several rivers with that name. Although it was once a tributary of the Mississippi River, the Red River is now a tributary of the Atchafalaya River, a distributary of the Mississippi that flows separately into the ...

This web page is dedicated to our good friend, retired armored vehicle engineer Bill Criswell who passed away a few years ago. A courageous and wise voice of reason against the wheeled truck madness infecting the Army and DoD, the picture above was his favorite of 11th Combat Engineers leading the way into Baghdad using M113 Gavins with gunshields. Bill you will never be forgot.

Hello and thank you so much for an important and well-written article! I have no addiction issues, but a very complicated and lifelong chronic pain situation, and after decades of being on a fentanyl patch with Actiq for breakthrough pain, I have recently switched to buprenorphine for the around the clock pain, which for a while seem to be helping much better, and lowered my Actiq use need.
