List the advantages and disadvantages of globalization

Economic integration is the unification of economic policies between different states through the partial or full abolition of tariff and non-tariff restrictions on trade taking place among them prior to their integration. This is meant in turn to lead to lower prices for distributors and consumers with the goal of increasing the level of welfare, while leading to an increase of economic ...

The growth rate of world GDP, measured in US dollars and at current exchange rates, fell sharply from around 5.5% in 1970â€“80 to 2.3% in 1980â€“90 to 1.1% in 1990â€“2000. 4 This is bad news, environmental considerations aside. But it still grew a little faster than world population over the past two decades; and the (population-weighted) GDP of developing countries as a group grew a little ...
