In philosophy, Idealism is the group of metaphysical philosophies that assert that reality, or reality as humans can know it, is fundamentally mental, mentally constructed, or otherwise immaterial. Epistemologically, Idealism manifests as a skepticism about the possibility of knowing any mind-independent thing. In contrast to Materialism, Idealism asserts the primacy of consciousness as the ...

I would like to provide responses to the arguments and evidence that Richard Carrier offers to rebut my argument that Jesus existed. This task is complicated because, in his response to my original piece, Carrier says a surprisingly small amount that engages my argument and a large amount that does not.. Approximately half of his piece is devoted to other matters:

Ray asks people how they could blindly believe in things without evidence, then tells them to blindly believe in God. My mind is open to evolution, but that does not mean I believe it. And my mind is also open to a supreme being, NOT a person or something we can ever or currently comprehend to know like how Ray says he loves and KNOWS God.

Immanuel Kant (1724–1804) is the central figure in modern philosophy. He synthesized early modern rationalism and empiricism, set the terms for much of nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy, and continues to exercise a significant influence today in metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, political philosophy, aesthetics, and other fields.

The cosmological argument is less a particular argument than an argument type. It uses a general pattern of argumentation (logos) that makes an inference from particular alleged facts about the universe (cosmos) to the existence of a unique being, generally identified with or referred to as God. Among these initial facts are that particular beings or events in the universe are causally ...

Who says homosexuality is a sin? The NLT does, right there in its "translation" to Leviticus 18:22: "Do not practice homosexuality; it is a detestable sin." But that's not what the Hebrew says, and I've put the word "translation" in scare quotes because I think that what the NLT has here is an interpretation, not
