

heidegger and logic the pdf

For by "Heidegger" I mean, in part, a style of thinking inquiring into the origination of discursive reason. And students are generally ill-prepared for such inquiry. On my understanding of "logic" and of "Heidegger," competent study of either one might be fruitfully possible without engagement in the other.

Edward Witherspoon. Heidegger seems to believe that this more fundamental investigation, which he calls "metaphysics," will be hampered by a rigid adherence to logical principles. Frege surely would have rejected Heidegger's idea of an investigation that is more fundamental than logic, and he would have regarded any attempt to pursue "metaphysics"...
