Legal history or the history of law is the study of how law has evolved and why it changed. Legal history is closely connected to the development of civilisations and is set in the wider context of social history. Among certain jurists and historians of legal process, it has been seen as the recording of the evolution of laws and the technical explanation of how these laws have evolved with the ...

The history of the global dispersal of dogs continues to be contentious (). In North America, the earliest confirmed dog remains (from Koster, IL) have been radiocarbon dated to ~9900 calibrated years before the present (2, 3), ~4500 years after the earliest unambiguous evidence of humans arriving in the Americas (). Although these early dogs were most likely not domesticated in situ (), the ...
